

WHAT TO EXPECT AT AN AA MEETING

Coffee.

AA Literature, such as pamphlets and books that provide more detailed information about the AA program.

A standard format that is similar to AA everywhere.

It is usually asked if there are any newcomers and new people are asked to give their first name.

Members will typically introduce themselves by their first name and identify as an alcoholic.

A topic is usually chosen and people in attendance will voluntarily share their experience, strength, and hope.

The meeting will last one hour.

Court cards will be signed as a courtesy to those who request a signature, however, AA is completely separate from the court system.

Anonymity is of prime importance, especially in our small town environment, therefore who you see here, what you hear here, let it stay here, within the meeting.
